Jl. Dayung V No. 23, Kelapa Dua, Kab. Tangerang, Banten.

As a computer science student deeply passionate about design, I am excited to merge my enthusiasm for creativity with my academic pursuit in informatics. I find joy in exploring UI design, web design, and app design. Alongside my technical exploration, I have honed excellent communication and leadership skills through active engagement in organizations. Moreover, my commitment extends to self-taught language learning, reflecting my determination to acquire diverse skills.
